

Affidavit

I, the undersigned, Kuba Cycman, Israel resident since 1991, having been apprised of my obligation to tell the truth under penalty of perjury hereby declare that:

1. I formerly was resident in the Argentine and in Buenos Aires in 1957 I was an active member of the Committee for Pinkos Zamosc, which published Pinkos Zamosc in 1957, hereafter "the book".
2. In this capacity I was responsible for raising funds for the publication of "the book" and I handled negotiations with the printer and with the editor of the book, the late Mr. Mardoqueo Bernstein.
3. I hereby assert that I am one of the copyright holders of "the book".
4. To date, no person or body, including Jack Berger of 12 Janice Court, Mahwah, N.J. 07430-1515, U.S.A., has requested my permission to translate, copy or quote from "the book".
5. "The book", as stated in its opening pages, is in memoriam of the members of the Jewish community of Zamosc who perished in the Holocaust. As such, it is unthinkable that their names be misspelled, misrepresented or deviate from the transcription of same in official Polish records (i.e., marriage and/or birth certificates).

Kuba Cycman